Miss Huff was graduated from Packer in 1912. Mr. Bedford was graduated from Williams in 1908 and from the Columbia Law School in 1911. He is a nephew of E. T. Bedford. Miss Huff entertained at bridge on Friday afternoon, when the formal announcement was made.

Early in the season it was evident that this winter would bring forth a larger number of debutantes than any in several years. Within the last fortnight plans for several presentations have been definitely decided upon. Miss Mary Sanger, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. William Cary Sanger, who was presented at the Court of St. James's last spring, will make her bow in Brooklyn Thursday, December 3, at the conventional afternoon reception between 4 and 6 o'clock at the home of her parents, 10 Montague terrace. Mrs. Sanger is one of this year's patronesses for the junior assemblies at Sherry's.

Miss Marjory Church, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Dwight Church, will be presented on Wednesday afternoon, December 2. The reception will be given at the home of her parents, 206 Clinton av.

Miss Helen Hinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hinman, of 110 Remsen st., will be the first debutante in point of time. Her debut is set for Wednesday, November 25.

On Friday, November 27, Mrs. James Guthrie Shaw, of 39 Montgomery Place, will give a reception to introduce her daughter, Miss Edith Shaw.

Mrs. Joe de Selding has chosen Monday, December 28, as the date for the presentation of her daughter, Miss Agnes de Selding. It will take place at the usual afternoon reception at the de Selding home, 14 Schermerhorn st.

Of the Park Slope will be Miss Helen Carscallen Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andley Clarke, of 1 Montgomery Place. She is to be introduced Wednesday, December 23.

Wednesday, December 9, is the date set for the coming out reception of Miss Marion Macdonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stone Macdonald, of 1505 Albenarle Road.

While no dates have as yet been set for their presentations, the list of debutantes will further include: Miss Margaret Ager, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Curtis Ager, of 137 Joralemon st.

Miss Margaret L. Bretz, daughter of Mrs. George Brewster Bretz, of 276 Garfield Place.

Miss Gertrude Thurston, youngest daughter of Mrs. William Harris Thurston, of 88 Remsen st.

Miss Constance Marks, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Drummond Marks, of 89 Willow st.

One of the largest weddings of the week was that on Thursday evening of Miss Edith Platt Warner, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, and Hamilton Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Patton, of Highland Park III. The South Congregational Church was the scene of the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. William Weston Patton, a brother of the bridegroom, who married Miss Elizabeth Boynton, daughter of the Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, a few months ago. The Rev. Rexford Raymond, pastor of the church, assisted in the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at Mr. and Mrs. Warner's home, 88 Montgomery Place. Yellow and white chrysanthemums and roses were used in the decorations. The bride was gowned in heavy white satin and duchess lace, carried a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of lilacs-of-the-valley and gardenias. Her sister, Miss Marion Grey Warner, who served as maid of honor, wore a frock of yellow satin ornamented with gold lace and carried a bouquet of gardenias and fennel. The other attendants appeared in pale green satin and silver lace and carried Sunburst roses. They were Mrs. William Weston Patton, Miss Emily Smith, Miss Helen Hodgman and Miss Irene Warner. The best man was Gail Robinson, and serving as ushers were Robert Patton, Samuel Cobb, Beeman Sibley and Joseph Weesby. Mr. Patton was graduated from Amherst in 1913, and his bride belongs to Smith, 13. They are to make their home at Bedford, Ore., where they have a large fruit ranch.

In celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. John Livingston Spence, of 529 3d st., gave a large reception Friday evening, which was announced the engagement of their son, William M. T. Spence. Mr. Spence's fiancée is Miss Clara Louise Cushman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Arthur Cushman, of 318 West 107th st.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Raeger Mott, daughter of Charles Tenny Mott, and Robert Burns, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burns, was quietly and simply celebrated Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Morton D. Bogue, a lifelong friend of the bride's family, at West Hampton, Long Island. Because of the recent death of the bridegroom's father, only relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, which was performed at noon by Monsignor E. W. McCarthy, and the breakfast which followed. Lavender chrysanthemums were combined with autumn foliage in the decorations. The bride's gown, of white satin and lace, was fashioned with a draped skirt and court train trimmed with pearls. She wore a tulle veil and carried lilacs-of-the-valley and Bride roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Alma R. Bogue, and two bridesmaids, Miss Anne Ward and Miss Janet Burns. They wore frocks of orchid taffeta and net and valvet hats of a deeper orchid shade. They carried lavender chrysanthemums. Clara Burns was his brother's best man. Mr. Burns was graduated from Cornell in 1907.

Wednesday evening will be marked by the wedding of Miss Anne Evans Maires, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Evans Maires, to Walter Bain Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sylvester Force. After the ceremony in the Old Dutch Church there will be a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 672 Ocean av. The bride will be attended by a maid of honor, Miss Alice Ward and two bridesmaids, Miss Helen Hodgman and Miss Irene Warner. The best man was Gail Robinson, and serving as ushers were Robert Patton, Samuel Cobb, Beeman Sibley and Joseph Weesby. Mr. Patton was graduated from Amherst in 1913, and his bride belongs to Smith, 13. They are to make their home at Bedford, Ore., where they have a large fruit ranch.

Chiropian opened his season Thursday at the Pouch Gallery. The programme was in charge of the committee of education, and after a short greeting by the president, Mrs. Elmore Ross McIntosh, the topic was presented by Mrs. Ferdinand Van S. Parr, chairman of the afternoon. The speakers of the afternoon were Miss Grace Strachan, who chose for her subject

"Vocational Schools": Thomas Mott Osborne, who told of "Prison Reform," and Dr. C. Stuart Gager, whose address was entitled, "A Side Path in Educational Work." A noon, "The Spirit of Progress," written for the occasion by Mrs. Harlow Roy Brown, was read by Mrs. Charles D. Sperry. There were solos by Mrs. Elizabeth King, soprano, and two groups of songs by Frederick Gunther, baritone. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Samuel J. Kramm and Mrs. Frank Harvey Field, president of Civitas.

FIRE CARNIVAL AT LAKEWOOD

The Resort Is Gay with Decorations in Honor of State Volunteer Firemen.

Lakewood, N. J., Oct. 17.—This resort bedecked itself with flags and bunting on Wednesday in anticipation of the firemen's carnival and tournament, which was held here on Thursday. The carnival spirit pervaded the entire resort and business places, cottages and hotels were elaborately decorated. Practically all the winter residents of the cottage colony are or have been active members of the local companies and society turned out in full force to witness the events. This is the first attempt that Lakewood has made to entertain the state volunteer fire forces, and the success of the project will make it an annual attraction. Numbered among the local fire laddies are the Goulds, Drexels, Randolphs, Lindleys, Whitneys, Packs, Willocks, Hornes and many others.

Announcement was made this week that the fall golf tournament at the Lakewood Country Club would be held over three days, beginning on Thursday, November 5. This annual event has always been held during Thanksgiving week heretofore and the moving ahead of the dates was a surprise, as well as a satisfaction to local enthusiasts. Entries will close the evening of the fourth. The tourney will begin the morning of the 5th, continuing morning and afternoon each day, and will wind up with the finals in the final play on Saturday afternoon. There will be prizes awarded for the best score in each group of sixteen in the qualifying rounds and numerous other prizes will be given the runner-up in each event.

Frederick A. Potts, president of the Wholesale Coal Dealers' Association of New York, announces that the association will hold its annual golf tournament at the Country Club October 23. More than fifty entries are expected for the competition.

Jasper Lynch entertained Mr. and Mrs. James Converse at the Country Club this week. Others registering at the club included C. C. Martin, S. H. Coombs, F. L. Peace, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Well, Hall, Mark Walker and August Krehler.

LENOX AND THE BERKSHIRE HILLS

The Lenox Club Consolidates with the Lenox and Golf and Tennis Club.

Lenox, Mass., Oct. 17.—A consolidation of the Lenox Club with the Lenox Golf and Tennis Club, which took place on Tuesday, was the first step toward the enlargement of the activities of the Lenox Club to meet the needs of Lenox in a social way. Although the club will retain its name—Lenox Club—it becomes practically a country club—it is a new clubhouse and property. The most important action of the meeting was the change in the bylaws to allow women as associate and non-resident members. This will make women considerable factors in the organization and their co-operation in affairs will be of consequence. The consolidation of the two clubs led to the enlargement of the board of governors and William D. Sloane, who had been the president of the Lenox Golf Club and Robert W. Paterson, the treasurer of the Lenox Golf Club, were elected members of the board of governors. The date of the opening of the clubhouse and the character of it were left to the house committee.

Some of the largest and most important entertainments of the season were held this week. Mr. and Mrs. Girard Foster gave several handsome dinners in honor of Mrs. Richard Gambrill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollister Pease gave dinners for their house party, Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Morris for Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell, who have been their guests at Brookhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Gheate and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French have given important affairs. At luncheons of which there have been many, Mr.
